Radio Adelaide is a community radio station. This means we are part of Australia's largest radio network, are committed to the principles of innovation, diversity, access and independence, and aim to provide a range of listening alternatives for people in Adelaide and SA. We are staffed — on and off-air — by a broad base of committed and professionally trained volunteers. Our vitality depends on the active support of all our subscribers and volunteers. In addition to the satisfaction you generate by doing your part to keep us on air, you'll also receive our quarterly program guide. Your subscription keeps us on air. Thank you.
